hostesses were assisted by Mrs. W. W. Cluff, Jr., and Mrs. Charles Dec. Six prizes were given.

Miss Hazel Taylor, who will be married September 30, was the guest of honor at a tea, Friday afternoon, given by Miss Rhea Nibley. The thirty-five guests spent the afternoon making a book of recipes. Each guest was given a sheet of paper with a water-color design. The rooms were beautifully decorated, the parlors in pink and white sweet peas, with pink ribbons entwined around the chandelier, the dining room was in yellow, with gold and glows and nasturtiums. From the chandelier to the four corners of the table were broad yellow satin ribbons, and at either end of the table were silver candelabra with yellow candles and shades. Miss Nibley was assisted by her sisters, the Misses Alice and Nan Nibley and Miss Miss Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Snow entertained about sixty friends at a musicale at their home Thursday evening. The rooms were prettily decorated in a profusion of yellow, with gold and glows and nasturtiums. From the chandelier to the four corners of the table were broad yellow satin ribbons, and at either end of the table were silver candelabra with yellow candles and shades. Miss Nibley was assisted by her sisters, the Misses Alice and Nan Nibley and Miss Miss Taylor.

Mrs. C. E. Traver entertained six tables at a bridge tea at her home Friday afternoon. The rooms were prettily decorated in the autumn flowers—asters, gold and glows and nasturtiums. Mrs. Traver was assisted by Mrs. Louis Cates. Prizes were won by Mrs. Lewis Evans, Mrs. Willis Uline, Mrs. William Ellerbeck, Mrs. A. L. Hopough, Mrs. A. H. Peabody and Miss Estelle Clinton.

Miss Vera Edwards entertained twenty young people at an Orpheum party Wednesday evening, followed by a supper at Franklin's in honor of Miss Winifred Brice and Miss Marian Oberdorfer. Among the guests were the young ladies who enjoyed two weeks at Brighton this summer in the Odell cottage.

Miss Winifred Brice and Miss Marian Oberdorfer will leave Sunday for Omaha, where they will be joined by Mrs. E. Vance Lane and Miss Lillian Lane, who will go on to Knoxville, Ill., where the young ladies will enter St. Mary's school for the year. Mrs. Lane will return in about two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Greenwald entertained twelve at a Dutch supper, at their home, Thursday evening, followed by a dancing party, in honor of Miss Marian Oberdorfer, who will leave Sunday for the East. The table was covered with oilcloth, and the napkins were paper.
